Norway Savings Bank announces new corporators
Annual Corporators Meeting, May 4, 2008

NORWAY, Maine – The annual dinner meeting of Norway Savings Bank Corporators was held on Monday, May 5, 2008 at the Four Seasons in South Paris. The corporators elected the following new members:

- Andrew Charles, owner of Haven's Candies in Westbrook, Portland & Scarborough
- Deborah Irons, owner of Arts Moves Dance Studio in Norway
- Jackie Kim and her husband Myung Kim, DMD, of South Paris
- Jill McGowan, owner of Jill McGowan Designs in Portland
- Katy Noonan, manager of the Stone Mountain Performing Arts Center in Brownfield
- Jonathan Spak, owner of the Oxford House Inn in Fryeburg
- Patricia Weigel, Executive Vice President, Commercial & Retail Banking at Norway Savings Bank
- Holly Young, Executive Vice President & Chief Information Officer at Norway Savings Bank

Corporators are an important link to the community and the bank. Comprised of business and community leaders, corporators are elected to serve in an advisory capacity for the bank and the board of directors.
