Norway Savings Bank promotes two Portland based employees

PORTLAND, Maine – Norway Savings Bank is pleased to announce that it has promoted Mary Hewett to Vice President, Employee Development & Training Manager and Robert Harville to Junior Commercial Lender. Both work in the bank's Portland office on Congress Street.

Mary Hewett has worked for Norway Savings Bank for three years as Assistant Vice President & Training Manager. She has over 25 years of training experience in the banking and financial services field and four years of independent consulting experience. During her time at Norway, Hewett has lead the bank's training function and built the company's robust training catalog and curriculum. She also participates on many of the bank's committees and is frequently involved in many bank wide initiatives.

Hewett earned a Bachelor of Science from the State University of New York at Buffalo in Sales and Marketing Management. She is also very active outside of the bank. She is a board member for the Center of Financial Training (CFT) and volunteers with Dress for Success. Hewett is a resident of Cape Elizabeth.

Robert Harville has worked with Norway Savings Bank since 2006 as a Commercial Credit Analyst and has over four years in the banking industry. In his new role as Commercial Lender, Harville will be responsible for developing and servicing new and existing commercial loan relationships, as well as advising customers on loan requests, investment of funds and other banking products. Harville is a resident of Portland.

Harville earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration in Finance from Husson College and a Masters of Business Administration from the University of Southern Maine. He is a board member of the Risk Management Association Young Professionals and has volunteered with the Children's Miracle Network and American Red Cross.
